

What Should I Do When I Find a Clinical Trial?

What do you do if you find a trial you are interested in?

Beneath every clinical trial listing there is a section of links to help you take action.

☐ Trials added within the last 2 weeks ☐ Trials with no visits required

Why register? Save your profile, save trials, and enter treatment history for more accurate matching. LOGIN / REGISTER

1 XL092 Targeted Therapy for Advanced HR+, HER2- Breast Cancer

Show Scientific Title

Purpose: To study the safety, best dose, effects (good and bad), and anti-cancer activity of XL092, an experimental tyrosine kinase inhibitor, alone or with atezolizumab (Tecentriq®) immunotherapy.

Who is this for?: People with advanced (some stage III) or metastatic (stage IV) hormone receptor positive (ER+ and/or PR+), HER2 negative (HER2-) breast cancer who have received at least 1 line of therapy for advanced/metastatic disease. View full eligibility criteria

Full Trial Details

Nearest Location:
3 miles
Exelixis Clinical Site #66
San Francisco, CA

Visits:
1 visit every 3 weeks

ClinicalTrials.gov:
NCT03845166

Phase I

2 Registry to Study Advanced Breast Cancer and Treatment Response

Show Scientific Title

Purpose: To create a registry that will be used to study how breast cancer spreads and why people respond differently to specific breast cancer treatments.

Who is this for?: People with advanced (some stage III) or metastatic (stage IV) breast cancer. View full eligibility criteria

Nearest Location:
3 miles
UCSF Medical Center-Mission Bay
San Francisco, CA

Visits:
Number of visits unavailable

You can click the star icon to save this trial for future reference in the “Saved Trials” page that you can find at the top of this page. This feature is only available if you have created a profile and are currently logged in.

★ Remember: Help is always available.

What Should I Do When I Find a Clinical Trial?

Use the “Share with a provider” or “Share with a patient” links to bring up sharing options for this trial. You can send an email directly from MTS with a link to the trial listing. Save a copy to your computer by clicking download PDF, or click copy link to share the listing by text or email on your own.

Share this trial with your provider

Select one of the options to share this trial with your provider.

 SEND EMAIL

 DOWNLOAD PDF

 COPY LINK

You can also reach out directly to the trial site with any questions. Click “View Locations and Contact Info” to see a list of all trial site locations and their corresponding contact information.

Trial Locations and Contact Information

Exelixis Clinical Site #66

(3 miles away)

San Francisco, CA 94158

Contact: Exelixis Clinical Trials

Phone: 1-888-EXELIXIS (888-393...

Email: druginfo@exelixis.com

Click the Print icon to generate a print-friendly hard copy that you can bring with you to an appointment with your provider.

Remember: Help is always available.